Sir

I have the honor to state that while the Chief Judge held the office of the Inspector General of Prisons, the contingent expenses of this office were met from the contingent allotment of the Chief Court and that no separate allotment was made for this office.

Since I assumed charge, great difficulty is felt for meeting ordinary charges. A table and a chair are now required for the newly entertained Clerk and the peons have to be provided with belts, badges, and clothing. I therefore request that Government sanction may be obtained for a sum of Rs. 350 being set a part for meeting the contingent expenses of this office
